D. HECHINGER & CO

Just Now

We are somewhat torn up on the outside of our storerooms by reason of remodeling our windows. When done we will present quite a formidable "Front." The "Inside," however, represents a herculean strength that only is derived from handling merchandise superior in quality and at the prices we sell them—cheaper by far than the ordinary run of ready-made clothing. Here you find the choice production of four or five of the most famous of Rochester's manufacturers.

None Made and Fit Like Them in the World!

The hundreds of young and old who buy them of us will tell you so. In this season's stock we are stronger than ever before—strong in quality and weak in price. The quantities we buy, and the discounts obtained by paying for them as soon as they come in, enable us to sell you the best at reasonable prices. We cannot tell you much more about our Shoes than you already know. No sensational prices. We simply buy the best made, sell them as low as conforms with good business ethics; and if you buy a pair that are guaranteed to you to wear well, your money back if they don't.

THE HOME STORE D. HECHINGER & CO.

The eighth annual championship horse bird tournament will be held at the Kentucky Gen Club grounds at Louisville on October 25 and 26, under the auspices of the Kentucky Gen Club.

WHO KNOWS WHERE?

Dan Rice Says the Greatest Circus
Clown Is Buried Here.

In a "Life of Dan Rice," just published, is this reference to Mayville— "The greatest circus clown I ever met," says Dan, "was Joe Blackburn of Kentucky. He was in some way related to the eminent Senator from that state, was a man of education, a gentleman and a good fellow. He was buried in Mayville, some time in '93. It was for many years a custom among circus men whenever they visited Mayville to take their bands and play a dirge at Joe Blackburn's grave."

Who can tell where Blackburn was buried?

Are going to get married you could not make a more appropriate gift than a piece of fine Cut Glass. Call and look over the many beautiful pieces we have just opened.

STOCK CLEARANCE SALE!

A settlement of the estate of the late senior partner of this firm is to be made in January. A necessity of the event is the reduction of stock to the minimum. It is to our interest to convert goods into cash at the sacrifice of profit. It must be a clearance sale in the most comprehensive significance of the term—a sale in which neither cost, value nor loss get a moment's consideration. To reduce our immense stock is the only aim, the highest hope, the fixed determination. No man or woman who knows the value of a dollar, who understands this opportunity to save, will let pass without taking advantage of it to the full as far as prudence and means permit. While many departments are represented here, it would take double the space this ad. occupies to tell of the dozens of other equally attractive bargains. Call on us, it's the only way to make all the facts.

SIX BIG VALUES!

None bigger, none better, none worthier ever offered the people of Mayville.

No. 1—Melange Cheviot, 15 inches wide, 36¢, original price $1. In all the new fall shades. If you can judge values we are sure wisdom will tell you that you will be well pleased with this unusual bargain.

No. 2—Black Taftta, 27 inches wide, 36¢, original price $1. Very warm, very durable. You may be surprised at the price, but you'll be more surprised at the quality.

No. 3—Woolen Twills, 27 inches wide, 36¢, original price $1. Very warm, very durable. You may be surprised at the price, but you'll be more surprised at the quality.

Everything mentioned above on sale now. Of course early comers have first choice. No disappointments available.

A DOLLAR is worth just what it will bring. If you had $1.00 you wouldn't buy a cup of water. Well, if we are certain there is no place in Mayville where a dollar will bring you as much as it will here, we are not talking of quantities. We refer to a larger package or a quantity of goods. The following list tells what a dollar will do in some of our principal departments.

A Dollar in the Linen Department will buy a splendid Bleached Damask 72 inches wide in rose, fern, lily, or roses, 22¢, original price $3. Fast, plain, well woven, good quality, double sole and heel.

No. 4—Women's Fleecelined Stockings, 22¢, original price $3. Fast, plain, well woven, good quality, double sole and heel.

No. 5—Men's Two-piece Underwear, 48¢, original price 75¢. Best Grade cotton, finely woven, soft, flexible. A well cut and balanced garment.
